The BPA encountered a 2004 Nissan Xterra which was seen scouting circumvention routes earlier in the day. Record checks revealed that the Nissan was registered to an address in Sierra Vista with multiple crossing through the Port of Entry and the SR-191 checkpoint. While following the Xterra, the BPA saw what appeared to be a person attempting to hide in the rear cargo area of the vehicle. The BPA conducted a vehicle stop and saw two people attempting to hide in the rear cargo area and two on the rear seat, all four were in the U.S. illegally. Three of the four illegal aliens were identified as Hermenegildo Giron-Godinez, Emiliano Martinez-Primo, and Christian Antonio Mendoza-Arreola. The driver was identified as Carol Jean Mchenry and an adult male front seat passenger, both U.S. Citizens. Material witnesses Giron, Martinez, and Mendoza stated that they or a friend arranged to be smuggled into the United States for money. all three said that they crossed the border illegally. In a post-Miranda statement, Mchenry said that she knew that the reason for this trip was to help facilitate the smuggling operation on today's event. She agreed to drive and pick up illegal aliens from a trailer in Herford. Mchenry said that she did not know how much she was supposed to get paid for the smuggling event.
